Getting to Macau | Getting to Parisian (Conference Venue)

The Parisian Macao

This year, the 2019 IEEE International Conference on Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management (IEEM2019) will be held at The Parisian Macao, an integrated resort inspired by the magic and wonder of the famed "City of Light."

Address:

The Parisian Macao
Estrada do Istoão, Lote 3, Cotai Strip,
Macao SAR, P.R. China

Getting there

By Air

From Macao International Airport:
Only 5 minutes away via the complimentary Parisian shuttle bus.
From Hong Kong International Airport:
A direct express ferry whisks you to Macau within an hour, and you need not go through Hong Kong Customs.

From Guangzhou Baiyun Airport:
Catch a coach service to Zhuhai Xinhe Coach Station (east of Gongbei Customs) and proceed to Gongbei Customs before entering Macao. Upon exiting Macao, take the complimentary Parisian shuttle bus to The Parisian Macao. Total travel time between Guangzhou and Macao is 2.5 hours.

From Zhuhai Airport:
Take a shuttle bus to the Lotus Bridge Customs. From there, take the complimentary Parisian shuttle bus to The Parisian Macao. Total traveling time is approximately 30 minutes.

From Shenzhen’s Bao'an International Airport:
Take a shuttle bus to the Fu Yong Ferry Terminal for a 45-minute journey to Macao.

By Land

Via Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge (HZMB) | Complimentary Parisian Shuttle Bus | Private Hire Car/Limousine
Options to travel via the HZMB

1. Cross-Border Buses
These buses pick up in the central urban areas of Hong Kong travel to the bridge entry, where you disembark and pass through customs, then reboard the bus to continue on to Macau.

One Bus Hong Kong Macau - https://www.onebus.hk/en

APM Kwan Tong to Macau (The Parisian Macao, The Venetian Macao, and Macau Sands) Buses depart regularly between 8.00 to 18.30 from APM at Kwun Tong Fares for One Bus Hong Kong Macau Monday – Friday: Before 18:00 HK$170.00 per adult or child. On or after 18:00 HK$190.00 per adult or child Saturday, Sunday & Public Holidays: HK$190 per adult or child

Hong Kong to Macao (Galaxy, Venetian, MGM Cotai, Grand Lisboa, Sands, Star World) 7:30 – 22:30 Fare: HKD $160 HK - Macau services depart from Elements Mall and Prince Edward station and there is also a late night service at 1:00am and 2:00am. There is an additional fee of HK$20 for night buses between 19:01 to 06:59, and HK$20 on Saturday/Sunday and Public Holiday.

HZMB Shuttle Buses

These shuttle buses transit the length of the bridge only, so you need to find your own way to and from the bridge entry/exit. The buses operate 24 hrs a day and depart at between every 5 minutes in peak and every 30 minutes in off-peak. Journey time is 45 minutes. Hong Kong to Macau – HKD $65 day rate / HKD $70 night rate

2. Complimentary Parisian Shuttle Bus Services
From Zhuhai:
Lotus Bridge: Take a bus to Hengqin and proceed through Customs. Once in Macao, take the complimentary Parisian shuttle bus to The Parisian Macao.

From Gongbei Border Gate:
Proceed through Customs, and once in Macao, take the complimentary Parisian shuttle bus to The Parisian Macao.

From Guangzhou/Zhongshan/Dongguan/Shenzhen: Take a cross-border bus to the Gongbei Port Shopping Plaza in Zhuhai or to the Lotus Bridge in Hengqin. Walk through Customs into Macao where you may take the complimentary Parisian shuttle bus to The Parisian Macao. For the most up-to-date shuttle bus service schedules including complimentary shuttles from Macao ferry terminals and airport, download the complimentary shuttle schedule.

3. Private Hire Car/Limousine
Cross-boundary hire cars provide pre-booked and personalised point-to-point services. Bookings via http://trans-island.com.hk
Ride-hailing services have also begun with a seat in a 7 seat business van costing 200 HKD.

By Sea
Cotai Water Jet – Connecting Hong Kong and Macao Contai Strip Cotai Water Jet is the premium high-speed ferry service connecting Hong Kong and Macao, offering a journey that is comfortable, convenient and reliable. Since 2007, the Cotai Water Jet fleet has carried more than 58.3 million passengers and averages approximately 94 daily sailings. Upon arrival in Macao, passengers can take a convenient, complimentary ride on our big blue luxury air-conditioned coaches to the doorstep of Sands Macao, The Plaza Macao, The Parisian Macao or The Venetian® Macao and Sands Cotai Central. For bookings, visit: www.cotaiwaterjet.com