- Healthcare Systems and Management
- Human Factors
- Information Processing and Engineering
- Intelligent Systems
- Manufacturing Systems
- Operations Research
- Production Planning and Control
- Project Management
- Quality Control and Management
- Reliability and Maintenance Engineering
- Safety, Security and Risk Management
- Service Innovation and Management
- Supply Chain Management
- Systems Modeling and Simulation
- Technology and Knowledge Management

Submit A Full Paper

Full papers are reviewed and included in the conference proceedings that will be submitted for publishing by IEEE Xplore. Choose this option if publishing your research is important.

- Online submission will open on 12 January 2023
- Full paper submission deadline: 01 June 2023
- Final acceptance of papers: 17 August 2023
- Publish ready papers: 28 September 2023
- Final conference program: November 2023

Submit Abstract Only

We understand that for many researchers, submitting a full paper can be a daunting task. This resource is designed for authors whose big reasons exclude publishing

- Online submission will open on 12 January 2023
- Abstract only submission deadline: 13 July 2023
